

Quiz for Write Your Scientific Journal Article course, Lesson 10

1. Taking another look at your ideas, adding, cutting, moving, changing to make it more clear, accurate, interesting, or convincing:
 - a. Revising
 - b. Editing
 - c. Revising and editing are the same thing

2. Adding or changing words, fixing problems with grammar, punctuation, sentence structure, and style:
 - a. Revising
 - b. Editing
 - c. Revising and editing are the same thing

3. You should edit as you revise.
 - a. True, it saves time later
 - b. False, it slows you down and makes it harder to see the big picture
 - c. False, edit first then revise afterwards

4. What should you do before submitting your manuscript?
 - a. Have approval of all authors
 - b. Write a cover letter to help the associate editor decide to review it
 - c. Double check reference formats and completeness
 - d. All of these should be done before submitting

5. It is a good idea to submit your article to two or three journals at the same time
 - a. True, it is good to have a backup in case it is rejected by one of them
 - b. True, there is no rule against it
 - c. False, simultaneous submission is not allowed by journals

Answer Key:

1. A
2. B
3. B
4. D
5. C