

Quiz for Write Your Scientific Journal Article course, Lesson 9

1. The following is NOT a function of the title:
  - a. Distinguished your article from other articles on a similar topic
  - b. Generates interest in the reader
  - c. Directs the reader to other related literature
  - d. Helps readers find your paper in databases
2. Which of these types of titles is in the form of a sentence that usually contains a result?
  - a. Indicative
  - b. Descriptive
  - c. Question
  - d. Compound
3. What of the following is LEAST likely to make a strong title?
  - a. Concise, complete, clear
  - b. Longer is better
  - c. Contains a colon
  - d. Avoids abbreviations
4. Which of these is NOT the best strategy for key words?
  - a. Select important terms that your target readers are likely searching
  - b. Choose specific terms
  - c. Choose terms that are not in the title
  - d. Choose general terms that apply to many studies
5. Which of these is NOT a common problem of a title?
  - a. Too specific
  - b. Too long
  - c. Gives away too much of the story
  - d. Over-promises what will be in the paper
6. Which of these is NOT a function of the abstract?
  - a. Provides an overview of the paper
  - b. Convinces the reader to download and read the rest of the paper
  - c. Has enough information that your paper could be cited
  - d. Provides all the results of the study
7. You should write the abstract by copy-pasting from the main paper
  - a. True, it saves time
  - b. True, you want to have the same sentences repeated
  - c. False, it will not flow well and is not efficient
  - d. False, it is self-plagiarism

8. Which type of abstract contains subheading or bulleted parts?
  - a. Informative
  - b. Structured
  - c. Indicative
  - d. Conference
  - e. Proposal

9. Which element of the main paper is NOT included in the abstract?
  - a. Background
  - b. Research Question/Purpose
  - c. Key Results
  - d. Significance
  - e. All of these are included in the abstract

10. Which of these is NOT a common problem in the Abstract?
  - a. Missing elements
  - b. Obscured elements
  - c. Under the word limit
  - d. Over the word limit

Answer Key:

1. C
2. A
3. B
4. D
5. A
6. D
7. C
8. B
9. D
10. C